Annual Journeymen Upgrade Training (JUT)

Overview

The Master Agreement (2017-2026) for the Plumbing and Piping Industry of Southern California between California Plumbing and Mechanical Contractors Association and Southern California Pipe Trades District Council No. 16 of the United Association states 5.9.1. Effective September 1, 2020, all Book 1 and Book 2 Journeymen must annually complete sixteen (16) hours of approved journeymen training as a condition of new or continuing employment. The Union and Contractors Association, working with the Southern Pipe Trades Apprentice and Journeymen Training Trust, shall establish approved classes, seminars, instruction, and other types of training for purposes of satisfying the requirements hereunder.

Members are required to complete training based on Journey Worker status as of September 1st of each year. For example, an Apprentice who turns out February 15, 2024, is not required to complete training by August 31, 2024, as he/she was still an Apprentice on September 1, 2023. Since he/she will be a Journey Worker as of September 1, 2024, he/she is required to complete the hours by August 31, 2025.

Members working outside of District Council 16 who return on or after September 1st will have a ninety (90) day period to complete their required hours. Members working outside of District Council 16 for 6 months and 1 day or more within JUT year (September 1 – August 31) will be exempt for JUT training for that JUT year only.

The JUT Committee retains the authority to modify JUT policies, rules, regulations, and eligibility criteria without prior notice. The Committee's interpretation of these policies, rules, regulations, and eligibility is conclusive.

Non-compliance with the MLA annual JUT requirement will result in notifications sent to a member's home local and contractor/employer. Non-compliant members will be removed from employment with contractor/employer and will be ineligible for Book 1 and Book 2 lists.

Hours Required by Year

For Journey Workers not current, hours will be applied based on delinquent JUT year upon completion.

Obtaining JUT Hours

To receive maximum applicable JUT training hours:

- Members must attend all hours of training, and pass the certification test, for certification classes. Members who attend all hours of training but do not pass the certification test, for certification classes, will receive 50% of approved JUT hours upon successful completion of the class. Members who pass the certification test later must notify A&J at JUT@ajtraining.edu to receive the remaining approved hours as well as any applicable rollover hours. The remaining hours will be applied according to the original completion date of the certification class.
- Members must attend all hours of training and pass a non-certification course with 70% or better.
- Members must pass the UA/NITC welding or brazing test when taking a UA/NITC weld/braze test for JUT hours. The weld/braze test must be completed at an A&J Training Center to qualify for JUT hours.
- Members taking the same course/courses each year will not qualify for the required minimum annual training hours. The same course/courses may be retaken when a certification is due to expire within that year.
- Course(s) must pertain to the piping industry and be at least 1-hour or more in length.

JUT Training Entities

The following entities are approved by Labor and Management for required annual journey worker upgrade training. (Note: Actual training hours may vary from the approved credit hours. Course hours may be more hours than annual required hours or maximum carry over allowed).

A&J Training Trust

A&J courses are regularly updated. All A&J JUT classes qualify for Journeymen Upgrade Training hours, except for re-test sessions. Visit www.ajtraining.edu for a current class schedule. To sign up for an A&J class, please login directly to the A&J member portal in the ISAQR application on your mobile device or through www.ajtraining.edu.

All Journey Worker classes have limited availability and are reserved for those who have registered. Members must sign up for A&J classes within the specified timeframe either through ajtraining.edu or directly via the ISAQR application through the A&J portal. Members who arrive for class without registering within the designated timeframe will not be allowed to attend the class and will not receive JUT credit.

Members must provide A&J notice of cancellation for any course enrollment by the Monday prior to the scheduled start date of the class. Failure to cancel by this deadline will result in a $50 fee. If a member fails to attend the first day of a scheduled class ("no show"), a $50 fee will be charged for each day of the class, up to a maximum of $200. Additionally, no shows will have their eligibility to enroll in future A&J classes suspended until all outstanding fees are paid.

UA/NITC Welding and Brazing Tests at A&J Training Trust

Only successful completions of welding or brazing tests completed at an A&J Training Center qualify for the JUT mandate. Hours vary per test. Gate tests do not qualify for JUT hours. Continuities qualify for 50% of the maximum hours listed for each test and only if tested at an A&J Training Center. Continuities for the same UA weld test will not qualify over multiple years.

See pages 6 and 7 for a complete list of qualifying welding and brazing tests.

CPMCA

CPMCA courses change every 6 months. All CPMCA courses qualify for Journeymen Upgrade Training hours. Visit www.cpmca.org for a current class schedule. To register for a CPMCA class, please contact your employer.

ClickSafety

ClickSafety courses approved for JUT credit are available for member signup via www.ajtraining.edu. If a ClickSafety course is taken that is not listed on www.ajtraining.edu, it may be submitted to jut@ajtraining.edu for consideration of JUT credit by the JUT Committee.

Members completing JUT training in the last month of the JUT year and thereafter (late completion) via a ClickSafety course must enroll in ClickSafety classes directly through ClickSafety, pay for the class (es) and submit a JUT credit request form upon completion.
